Ecclesiastical Private Trust Status Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as official notice and affirmation of the lawful and spiritual standing of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust.

The Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust exists as a living, sovereign, irrevocable spiritual entity governed solely under divine law and sacred ecclesiastical jurisdiction. It operates independently of statutory systems and is bound not to the traditions or contracts of corporate or secular governance, but to the eternal covenant between the living and the Creator of the Universe.

All persons lawfully associated with the Trust, by spiritual declaration and acceptance, are recognized as living men and women, not corporate entities, not legal fictions, and not subject to presumed contracts of enslavement or involuntary servitude. The trust exists to provide care, protection, and provision for its members, including in matters of education, welfare, conveyance, commerce, and health.

This notice is valid for use in any institution or setting—domestic or international—that may inquire about the lawful and spiritual standing of any member acting within the trust's authority.

No consent is given to subvert, infringe, or misrepresent this trust's private jurisdiction, nor shall any attempt be made to reclassify or re-register its members, property, or authority under another system. Any attempt to do so constitutes a trespass upon sacred ground.

This document carries the full force of spiritual and ecclesiastical jurisdiction and shall not be rebutted except by lawful, living, spiritual authority of equal standing—under divine covenant and not man-made statute.

Spiritual Bonding Clause:
By receipt and acknowledgment of this letter, you affirm the recognition of the sacred spiritual jurisdiction of the Trust. All interactions are entered into under mutual spiritual respect and divine witness. No contract is presumed. No coercion shall be tolerated.

Sealed under the living authority of the Ecclesiastical Private Trust.
No witness required.
